In 1933, Les Abgott and Irma Harwick founded the Original Pancake House in Portland, Oregon. Since then, their restaurant has won worldwide acclaim.

In 1966, the Original Pancake House was selected by James Beard as one of the ten best restaurants in the world. In 1968, the Original Pancake House also won the McGill Choice for Excellence in the Preparation and Presentation of Food.

The secret began the success of the Original Pancake House is QUALITY - quality ingredients blended into authentic recipes that have been carefully selected and selected from the very best of each country or area of origin. Some recipes are by famous chefs, others are "home" recipes that have been handed down from generation to generation, but into each tasty dish the pride of special care and the ultimate of quality is added.

This is the Original Pancake House secret and this is why it is the most copied menu in the world. We are overwhelmed by the interest, but we are proud to know we cannot be surpassed.

THESE ARE A FEW OF THE STANDARDS OF QUALITY MAINTAINED IN OUR ORIGINAL HOUSE

- We serve freshly prepared French fries
- Only butter (31 brand) used for cooking
- Pure whipping cream (31 brand) used in our butters and cakes
- We blend our own coffee to produce a rich, bold, where true coffee flavor
- We use only fresh eggs (31 brand) and white Grade AA eggs
- Our hashbrowns are dry-cured, thick-cut, hand-cut and browned
- Our sausage is made for us from our own formula
- No prepared butter mixes of any kind used
- We are established, hard work, fair
